

How to connect your Chromebook to your home Wi-Fi

Click on the control box in the lower right hand corner

Click on > to access the Wi-Fi connection tab from the menu. Here you will be able to find your own Wi-Fi network and connect. If your home Wi-Fi is password protected (a good practice) then it will prompt you to put in the password. Once this is setup it will do it automatically every time the Chromebook comes home.