

My Summer Reading P.I.G.

(Pretty Important Goal)

[Empty rectangular box for student information]

[Empty rectangular box for student information]

[Empty rectangular box for student information]

[Empty rectangular box for student information]

[Empty rectangular box for student information]

[Empty rectangular box for student information]

[Empty rectangular box for student information]

[Empty rectangular box for student information]

[Empty tilted rectangular box for student information]

[Empty rectangular box for student information]

[Empty rectangular box for student information]

[Empty rectangular box for student information]

[Empty rectangular box for student information]

[Empty rectangular box for student information]

[Empty rectangular box for student information]

[Empty rectangular box for student information]

[Empty rectangular box for student information]

[Empty tilted rectangular box for student information]

[Empty tilted rectangular box for student information]

[Empty rectangular box for student information]

[Empty rectangular box for student information]

[Empty rectangular box for student information]

Name

Teacher

Grade

Would you like to see
Mrs. Dickerson
KISS a PIG???

If the answer is YES, fill out this “Book Shelf” over the summer with titles from the books you’ve read!

(If you are able to read chapter books, each chapter may count as a book).

The class that has the MOST Summer Reading
P.I.G.’s turned in on time will get

PIZZA PARTY!!!

AND any student who turns in a paper will automatically get 10 points for our new PBIS program AND go into a drawing for our first PBIS raffle for a gift card for Barnes and Noble!

We will announce the date for Mrs. Dickerson to “PUCKER UP”, when school starts!

Your Book Shelf is DUE to your classroom teacher on or before Tuesday September 4th!